The Puppet Show

M.W. CRAVEN

A dark and twisted thriller that won the CWA Gold Dagger Award.

IN DETAIL

A serial killer is burning people alive in the Lake District's prehistoric stone circles. He leaves no clues and the police are helpless. When his name is found carved into the charred remains of the third victim, disgraced detective Washington Poe is brought back from suspension and reluctantly partnered with civilian analyst Tilly Bradshaw. Together, they uncover a trail that only he is meant to see. The killer has a plan and Poe is part of it. As the body count rises, Poe discovers he has more invested in the case than he could have possibly imagined.
